Dan Tabraham, SVP, Chief Credit and Risk Officer, TDECU

For Immediate Release: TDECU Names Dan Tabraham New SVP, Chief Credit and Risk Officer

(Lake Jackson, TX) — TDECU is pleased to welcome Dan Tabraham to its senior leadership team. As TDECU's new SVP, Chief Credit and Risk Officer, Tabraham is responsible for developing policies and programs that successfully predict, analyze and protect the credit union from lending portfolio risk, helping maintain and elevate portfolio quality.

Tabraham brings with him more than 20 years' experience in lending and financial services, most recently in his position as Senior Vice President, Credit Policy Officer at Independent Bank in McKinney, Texas. Prior to this role, Tabraham served as Senior Vice President, Head of Loan Operations at Heartland Financial, USA in Dubuque, Iowa, and held a variety of senior leadership positions at Legacy Texas Bank in Plano, Texas.

Tabraham earned a bachelor's degree from the University of North Texas, as well as a master's degree and a certificate from the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking, both at Southern Methodist University. Highly committed to professional development, he also holds several certifications in quality assurance, risk management, mortgage loan administration, and secondary market management. Tabraham is also passionate about community service; he currently serves on the finance committee of his church where he has held a number of volunteer positions over the past 20 years. He has also volunteered for Boy and Cub Scout troops, Junior Achievement, and Habitat for Humanity.

"We're extremely pleased to have Dan join our team," said TDECU President and CEO Stephanie Sherrodd. "His top-notch experience is matched by what I see as an incredible mind for analysis along with a genuine commitment to upholding loan quality for not only our credit union, but also our Members."
