

TDECU NAMED A 2021 TOP WORKPLACE IN HOUSTON AREA

(Lake Jackson, TX) - TDECU, Houston's largest credit union, has been named a 2021 Top Workplace by the Houston Chronicle. The feedback from TDECU's own employees to an anonymous survey earned the $4 billion organization the award.

"Our employees are fantastic, and this belongs to them. We operate under the motto of 'One Team' and that mindset is demonstrated with this honor. I couldn't be prouder," said TDECU President & CEO, Isaac Johnson.

Adding to the excitement, TDECU ranked among the top ten at #8 among large companies of 500 local employees or more who made the list.

"One of the most exciting things is that it is a reflection of how our employees experience their work environment and the meaningful work they do helping Members navigate their financial journeys," Johnson continued.

Some of the biggest drivers in the credit union's ranking is how its employees feel about TDECU in terms of training, flexibility, and pay.

"As we've navigated the uncertainty of our current times, our employees' needs, and their growth, have been at the forefront. Our investment in our workforce means we empower our team to be its best at work and serving our Members," said SVP, Chief Human Resources Officer, Qiara Suggs.
